Productivity information exchange (Pie) Topics & Questions Submission

Attendees may register for up to 8 appointments with various vendors based upon their interests and topic/questions submission. Attendee will be given a private educational consultation by a vendor based upon attendee's submission. If attendee does not specify enough topics or particular questions to fill their day, the WM® staff will assign appointments for the attendee and ask the vendor to present a topic of their choice. Appointments will be for one company at one time. As an example, if two representatives from XYZ Company attend Pie, their appointments will be set together as a group with one vendor at a time. Call the WM® office regarding format questions.
